

SWOT ANALYSYS: BEST PRACTICE – REORGANIZATION OF THE KINDERGARTENS

Lifelong
Learning
Programme

CMEPIUS
Center RS za mobilnost
in evropske programe
izobraževanja in usposabljanja

Lifelong
Learning
Programme

Why SWOT?

- ✓ to capitalize on strengths
- ✓ to overcome weaknesses
- ✓ to exploit opportunities
- ✓ to survive threats
- ✓ to be pro-active
- ✓ to take better decisions

Lifelong
Learning
Programme

STRENGTHS

- Smartly divided groups (prepared in advance by trainers);
- Good cooperation, team work;
- Phicially seperated debators from the rest of the crowd (better atmosphere);
- Topic was the main concern of everyone;
- Individual self control in a group setting;
- Good moderator;
- Good informing, people were ready for good practice;

Lifelong
Learning
Programme

WEAKNESSES

- Lack of concentration, focus and contribution within the group;
- Lack of discipline (in general);
- After summer break people were still not focused on tasks at hand;
- Language barriers (dialects) and cultural differences;
- Division into seven groups was not possible (lack of participants)

Lifelong
Learning
Programme

OPPORTUNITIES

- To see there is a chance to influence possible change through public debate;
- Make people feel ,they empowere themselves through debate;
- A good way to find allies, cooperators, etc. and form a team with same interest;

Lifelong
Learning
Programme

OPPORTUNITIES

- To improve conflict resolution skills,
- To improve leadership skills;
- To improve terminology skills;
- A new learned fact (it is allways good to have a plan B)

THREATS

- Time limitation;
- Roles were strictly divided;
- Personate involvement into the roals whick could (possibly) lead into bigger conflicts;
- Possible personal conflict among topic.

Lifelong Learning
Programme

Hvala!

Shkuran!

Gracias!

Nirringrazzjak!

Grazie!

Mulțumesc!

Dziękuję!

Thank you!