

Evaluation of good practices Malta

SWOT Analysis

Strengths

- Learning while having fun
- A wide range of groups that can take part in it, such as children, adolescents, adults, mixed groups.
- Quick integration between people/consolidation of relations for those who already know each other
- Increases ability to find a way in a foreign environment
- Gaining new knowledge, developing
- Improved sense of direction
- Contact with the locals
- Learning to work in team
- Completing tasks according to the schedule
- A method with a lot of fun and fresh air
- Very nice time

www.wiosna.org.pl

Weaknesses

- The method is not for everyone, such as people with disabilities, people who do not tolerate the heat.
- Mainly in a foreign environment
- It can be tiring
- For some it may be for one time only
- Chaos in a group, disorganization
- May cause discomfort among shy people
- Too little or too much time

Opportunities

- Universal - can be designed anywhere
- Gaining cultural and sightseeing values
- You can gain knowledge from different sources of information, from a few people, and then compare them
- You can learn about your abilities and improve them (not only related to the game, but also about leadership, group roles, etc.)

Threats

- Conflicts in the group/Conflict units
- Exhaustion
- You have to be careful about giving the camera to strangers /meeting “wrong people” (extreme case)
- Too large group
- You can get lost
- Bad weather!
- Difficulties with foreign language
- The possibility of injury

www.wiosna.org.pl