European Partnership on Adult Education and Mobility for Social Inclusion

Guidelines and content of the pre-departure training

In order to ensure a good experience for adults suffering or at risk of social exclusion participating in a mobility activity, project partners have identified their educational needs and agreed on carrying out with adult learners during the pre-departure training the following non-formal education activities:

- To provide adult learners with information about the Lifelong Learning Programme with a particular focus on Grundtvig Learning Partnerships.
- To present the EPAEMSI project.
- To prepare, as a group, for the activities which will take place during the mobility activity.
- To revise the “Guide for Participants” with the adult learners.
- To review with the adult learners what is intercultural learning.
- To establish what are the adult learners’ fears, expectations and contributions to the mobility activity.
